

The Psychological Advising Centre on campus – trustworthy and free of charge!

Studying is an exciting time: The first apartment of your own, perhaps far from home, with many new faces. Maybe you are in doubt with your studies or you have the feeling that you are not going anywhere? Not everything works always out as hoped, and difficulties affect your private life or your studies.

Anxiety, uncertainty or disorientation are nothing unusual! The Psychological Advising Centre of Studierendenwerk has an open ear for everyone needing support or looking for new perspectives. We advise you in presence or by phone/video.

We are here for you
